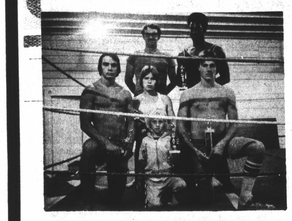
BY BILLY CONNER



Local Boxers Win Big At Lynchburg Armory

The boxing coaching staff for the Appomattox boxing team agreed that our local fighters invaded the Lynchburg City Armory Saturday night with a huge amount of success, winning five out of six fights.

The best fight of the night was between Bill Vaughan and Mike Rucker. Every punch Vaughan threw was considered a power punch. Vaughan's hard punches ended the fight in the second round on a T.K.O.

Chief seconds Jack Torbert and Raymond Mullins had nothing but praise for Vaughan who followed instructions and did exactly as they instructed.

Heavy weight Clyde Ferguson won an easy first-round knockout over Charles Bennett of North Carolina with a series of hard punches.

This fight lasted only 33 seconds.

Thomas Cheryba had the easiest fight of the night. He won with a Walk Over against Howard Bradley. Walk Over is when the opponent refuses to enter the ring.

Seven year old, 50 pound Terry Ferguson fought a draw with Frank Jackson bringing home a nice trophy.

The only loss of the night was Tony Cole against Lee Smith. Tony fought a "gutsy" fight but lacked the physical stamina to defeat Smith.

North Carolina boxing commissioner has invited Vaughan and Stone to participate in the Golden Glove Tournament being held in Hillcrest Heights, Maryland on September 2nd. Both fighters must decline the invitation because of football season.

The Appomattox boxing team may be small in numbers but what they lack in numbers can be made up in determination and the will to win.

The Appomattox Jaycees presented a Boxing Sportsmanship Award to Greg King of North Carolina. King is the fighter who boxed Gordon Ford on May 20th. He was most appreciative of the award but insisted that Ford should have been presented the award. King had nothing but praise for Ford and stated he had come all the way to Lynchburg to pull for Ford in his match. However, due to illness in his family, Ford could not participate in the Saturday night matches.
